FIBERGLASS POOLS MANUFACTURER

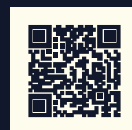

The Origin of Azoria

Aquarino and Dolphin merged, becoming the largest fiberglass pool manufacturer in Canada. They now operate under a single brand: AZORIA.

THE NEW WAVE

The name "Azoria" evokes the Azores, a Portuguese archipelago, as well as an azure hue, symbolizing the connection with crystal-clear blue waters. It also reflects the founder's cultural heritage and his attachment to his native island in Portugal. This union aims to leverage the complementary strengths of both companies and offer a wider range of products that meet the needs of backyards of all sizes and styles, whether urban or rural. By combining our expertise and resources, we are better positioned to innovate, improve the quality of our products, and provide exceptional service to our customers.

A proudly Canadian pool company

A True Canadian Success Story (Eh?)

At Azoria, our goal is to create beautiful outdoor spaces that stand the test of time, because who wouldn't want a backyard that impresses for years to come? As a proud family business, we are dedicated to providing high-quality products that combine durability, innovation, and the perfect touch of aesthetic flair. Our mission? To offer you the most innovative fiberglass pools while actively supporting local businesses across Canada.

Azoria is a Canadian company from A to Z: Canadian owned, Canadian managed, and Canadian made. Our commitment to local manufacturing means that each of our fiberglass pools is crafted right here in Quebec with precision and care. We do more than create products; we support local economies and help our communities thrive.

THE CORREIA FAMILY

Azoria: The vision behind the modern pool

Azoria was born from an ambitious dream: to create modern, durable fiberglass pools perfectly suited to the Canadian market. Faced with a lack of options that reflected the innovation and design of his concrete products, Horacio Correia decided to design his own solution. This visionary project quickly became the largest fiberglass pool manufacturer in Canada.

The family spirit: a legacy of loyalty and passion

Today, his family continues this mission with passion, developing pools that transform outdoor spaces into exceptional living areas. At Azoria, we believe that every product is an opportunity to bring people together, create lasting memories, and build environments where quality, innovation, and heart come together.
